Winwick Freshmen See First Game on Saturday

The freshman football team from Winwick high school, registered in numbers to 55 from original 130, will take the field at 10 a.m. Saturday for the first game of the season, against St. Mel in Garfield park, Chicago.

The greenies' remaining schedule includes Loyola academy, the Dominican House of Studies field the following week, followed by Holy Trinity, Humboldt park and DePaul. Weber here.

Each Dan O'Brien, who says the team shows promise but is unknown quantity until the game is over, early this week indicated a number of players who have a chance to gain playing assignments.

These include Jim Durzak, Leahy, Don Flynn, Terry Han, Bill Haddad, and Vincent Fiduccia at ends; and Frank Noll, Phil Kelly, Frank Franco and Rich Adameczyk on the tackle.

The guard possibilities include Mike Barry, Pat Hieber, James, Joe Matzaka and Mollsen, while Gerald Hitt, Lloyd, Jim O'Connor and Sullivan are the leading candidates.

The quarterback choice seems to be between Jim Klenske and Lambert, while John Stanton, Jim Sullivan, Frank Posito and Paul Halper stand out for the call at fullback.

The halfbacks will be chosen from the head of a list which includes John Santoro, Tommy, Mike Emond, Phil Giall, Pat Gray, George Sullivan and Brian Dunigan.

Civil Defense Officials Discuss Disaster Plan

Civil defense members from Elmwood Park, Northlake and Franklin Park as well as guests from the Leyden township area met Wednesday, September 14, at a joint open house meeting with Civil Defense director of Franklin Park, Norman E. Grantham, to discuss mutual civil defense problems.

Civil defense director of Northlake, Harold C. Alden, stated that at the present time there were 120 jet passenger planes landing at O'Hare airport and that within the near future there would be close to 300 jet passenger planes coming in per day to O'Hare.

The possibility of an air crash in one of the populated areas was discussed by the group, and the role which the civil defense units might play in the event of such a disaster.

Committees were appointed to meet with individual Police and Fire Chiefs to get opinions and ideas on a operation Disaster plan which would be best fitted to their own locality.

It was voted that there shall be one meeting per month that would take in all of the Civil Defense groups of Leyden township, and that the next meeting would be Tuesday, October 18, at the Franklin Park village hall.

At that time a report from the committees on Disaster Plan I will be presented. It was further stressed that no civil defense worker or group should move in to a disaster area without invitation, and then to do only what is requested.

Franklin Park Civil Defense director Grantham invited all of the Leyden Township directors and groups to participate in the local October 2 meeting.

Jane Addams School To Be Dedicated Sunday

The Jane Addams school of district 89, located at Ninth avenue and Division street, Melrose Park, will be the scene of an official dedication ceremony to be held on Sunday, October 2 at 2:30 p.m. The school, opened last March, is the latest of the district's 10 schools in Maywood, Melrose Park and Broadview.

Educational, civic and business leaders in the district area, together with a large number of interested citizens, will join with the Board of Education, administrators, school personnel and the Jane Addams Parent-Teacher association in the dedication ceremonies.

Presiding Sunday will be Leo Peller, president of District 89 Board of Education. Other speakers will be Joseph Belline, secretary of the board; C. H. Pygman, district superintendent; Robert Murphy, school principal; Howard Leventhal, PTA president, and Robert Stanich, a seventh grade pupil, who will represent the children of the school.

The invocation will be given by Rabbi Moshe Babib of the West Suburban Temple Har Zion, River Forest, and the benediction will be given by Rev. Salvatore DeVita of Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish, Melrose Park.

Community singing will be led by Richard Daniels, director of public relations at Proviso East High school. Accompanist will be Margaret Kniffke, district supervisor of music.

Following the program the public is invited to tour the building. Refreshments will be served by the school PTA.

Jane Addams, for whom the school is named, established Hull house in Chicago many years ago as an outstanding achievement of humanitarian social service. Alex Elson, Chicago attorney, who knew and worked with Jane Addams, will appear on the program to memorialize the great educational and cultural contributions of Jane Addams. Elson was a club member at Hull house as a boy; a leader as he grew up and finally a member of the board of trustees.
